Cost of our Services

Please use the information in this section to compare value for money, shop around and decide which firm to use.

1. Our services

We offer an initial discussion (without charge) when we will describe our services more fully and explain the payment options. If you decide to go ahead, we will:

- Gather and analyse personal information about you, your finances, your needs and objectives
- Prepare relevant generic reports covering possible solutions
- Recommend and discuss any action we think you should take and, with your agreement, arrange relevant investments for you and agree a further fee/commission in respect of each product
- Prepare recommendation reports for each product, together with all relevant paperwork such as application form, etc.
- Process all paperwork
- Regular reviews of your financial affairs if you elect to have them.

2. What are your payment options?

Not all firms charge for advice in the same way. We will discuss payment options with you and answer any questions you have. We will not charge you anything until you agree how we are to be paid. We have ticked payment options that we offer.

Paying by fee

Whether you buy a product or not, you will pay us a fee for our advice and services. If we also receive commission from the product provider when you buy a product, we will pass on the full value of that commission to you in one or more ways. For example, we could reduce our fee, or reduce your product charges, or increase your investment amount, or refund the commission to you.

Paying by commission (or product charges)

If you buy a financial product, we will normally receive commission on the sale from the product provider. Although you pay nothing up front, that does not mean our service is free. You still pay us indirectly through product charges. Product charges pay for the product provider's own costs and any commission. These charges reduce the amount left for investment. If you buy direct, the product charges could be the same as when buying through an adviser, or they could be higher or lower. We will tell you how much the commission will be before you complete an investment, but you may ask for this information earlier. The amount of commission that we receive will vary depending on the amount that you invest and (in certain cases) the term of your investment or your age.

Paying by a combination of commission and fee.

In some circumstances, we also charge a fee on top of any commission we might receive.

3. How much might our services cost?

As Independent Financial Advisers we are able to advise on options open to you and on a wide range of plans from any investment or insurance company, not just from a limited selection; as such, we are truly independent and will be acting in your best interests by providing you with advice which is most appropriate to your circumstances. The advice we give you may not necessarily lead to the sale of financial products to you.

There are various costs involved in running our practice which enable us to provide excellent service to you; these include professional fees, market research, legal, regulatory and compliance requirements, administration, training, technology and utilities.

Our costs fall into two categories: services and product sales. For services, fee payment is the only option. For product sales, you may choose the fee option, the commission option or the combination of commission and fee option (see 3. What are your payment options? above). Whichever option you choose, we will retain all renewal commission generated by the product for its entire life.

If you choose the fee option, our minimum fee is £800.00.

If you choose the commission option, we reserve the right in certain circumstances to charge you a fee in addition if, for example, commission payable is insufficient to cover the cost of our research, recommendation and sale; we will tell you how much any additional fee will be before you complete an investment, but you may ask for this information earlier.

If you choose the combination of commission and fee option (where the product sale generates commission), the amount of our fee will depend on the service provided to you but will not exceed the total agreed with you beforehand; the commission will not exceed the maxima shown in Table 1 and Table 2 below. We will tell you the fee amount before we provide the service to you and the commission amount before you purchase the product/s.

Advice not taken

Where we have undertaken research and provided advice and recommendations to you in writing at your request and you subsequently decline to proceed with that advice and those recommendations, we will charge you a fee to cover the cost of that research, advice and recommendations; this fee will not exceed the amount/s for the product/s as shown below.

Cancellation / lapse of products sold

This situation, if and when it may arise, is subject to separate negotiation; a separate contract to cover this will be drawn up if applicable, following and in accordance with the outcome of discussion with you.
